Alcohol Compliance Training Coming Soon

This winter, employees of Iowa's alcohol retailers will have the opportunity to receive alcohol compliance training wherever and whenever they want.

In late February, the Iowa Alcoholic Beverages Division will be launching an all-new alcohol retailer training. The Iowa Program for Alcohol Compliance Training (I-PACT) will be offered online to the general public, free of charge. This is the first time state-wide training will be in a fully integrated format, available 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

The alcohol compliance training will be aimed at both on-and off-premises retail alcohol licensees. The content focuses on key identifying elements of the latest format of Iowa driver's licenses, but includes information on the previous version of licenses and identification cards.

I-PACT covers the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act (Iowa Code chapter 123), valid forms of identification, and how to spot altered and fake IDs. The program focuses on preventing underage sales and sales to intoxicated patrons. Students will learn techniques for refusing the sale of alcohol with minimal confrontation and how to legally confiscate an altered or fake ID. The training also includes regulations and tips for offsite delivery of alcohol.

Establishments that choose to participate in the I-PACT training are granted an affirmative defense, which may be used once in a four-year period. A business may avoid civil prosecution if an alcohol sale-to-minor violation occurs in their establishment. In order for the business to take advantage of the affirmative defense, the employee guilty of the violation must have been I-PACT certified prior to the time the offense occurred. However, the affirmative defense cannot be used if the employee sold to a minor under the age of 18. Only the business is eligible to avoid a civil penalty; the guilty employee will still be subject to a fine and their I-PACT certification will be revoked.

The overall goal of I-PACT is increased voluntary compliance with the state's alcohol laws through education and enforcement. The core objective of the program is to prevent illegal sales of alcohol by educating alcohol sellers and increasing awareness of changes in Iowa's liquor laws.

The program asks that a PACT is made for:

- Iowa kids not to consume alcohol products.
- Iowa retailers not to sell alcohol to minors.
- Iowa licensees not to serve alcohol to patrons under 21.
- Iowa's law enforcement to enforce alcohol laws.

Violations for illegal sales of alcohol to minors include a $500 criminal fine to the clerk, as well as a $500 civil fine to the retail establishment for the first violation. Subsequent violations can result in higher fines, license suspension or even revocation. Minors under the age of 21 are also subject to fines and/or community service if found using, attempting to purchase, or in possession of alcohol products.

Local retail businesses have several new tools available on the Division's website at IowaABD.com for educating staff on proper sales and consumption of alcohol. Iowa's Alcohol Law Enforcement/Retail Training (I-ALERT) website primarily functions as a policy creation tool. On- and off-premises establishments such as bars, restaurants, convenience, grocery and liquor stores can use the site to create a custom policy regarding the sale of alcohol. The policy generator can be found at IAlert.iowa.gov.

The Iowa Pledge program (I-PLEDGE), which began in 2000, has contributed to a dramatic increase in adherence to Iowa's tobacco laws. The last three years have seen more than 90 percent compliance during law enforcement checks. I-PLEDGE tobacco retailer training can be found at <http://ipocp.iowaabd.com:8080/portal>.

Green Beer... is just as intoxicating as regular beer

The Iowa Governor's Traffic Safety Bureau and the Iowa ABD would like to invite you to join us in promoting traffic safety. Nearly 23 percent of traffic fatalities last year in Iowa were attributed to drivers impaired on alcohol or other drugs.

Impaired driving crashes are preventable. Great concepts such as Designated Drivers and Call a Cab programs are innovative approaches to solving this nationwide tragedy. The best defense against a drunk driver is to always buckle up. Also remember that it is illegal to text while driving. Please help in our quest to protect all Iowans from impaired drivers during the upcoming holiday festivities.

More information such as printed materials and DVDs are available. Visit IowaGTSB.org or these other impaired driving information websites: NHTSA.gov, StopImpairedDriving.org and StopDruggedDriving.org.

BUILDINGS & GROUNDS

How did you get your nickname?

When I went to Drake University, I worked for the newspaper and I always got the scoop!

What are your job duties?

As Buildings and Grounds Manager, along with Matt Wharff, we work behind the scenes, so the office, warehouse and transportation staff can do their jobs as efficiently as possible. We help facilitate others.

What is the most challenging part of your job?

Removing encumbrances or improving physical conditions can often be challenging. Matt and I do whatever it takes to create a better work environment.

What is your favorite aspect of your job?

As a retail business owner for most of my life, I have learned to enjoy working with people. Every day brings something new, so nothing becomes old or boring.

What do you like to do in your free time?

I've retired from rugby, so my interests have settled in the arts. I majored in photojournalism in college. Go Drake Bulldogs! I love taking wildlife pictures. Being able to find the right weather and light is a rewarding experience for the perfect picture. I have three dogs (a German shorthair named Calvin, a coon hound named Maggie, and a Brittany named Maxx - all rescues) who take me out regularly for exercise. I love books: historical, biographical, and anything by James Herriott. Hopefully, my wife Lucy and I will return to the old homeland in Scotland for a visit soon.

The reasons for this popularity are several, including the spirit's natural approachability and relative affordability, new expressions expanding its range and appeal, the whiskey's ancient heritage, and its, well, "Irishness"—the convivial connotations attending the entire Irish drinks category.

Celebrate with CHOCOLATE!

If you don't have any chocolate-flavored spirits on hand, you might want to get some—and not just for Valentine's Day!

Chocolate-flavored liqueurs and spirits make it easy to turn any everyday occasion into a memorable celebration.

You can enjoy chocolate-flavored liqueurs and spirits on their own, drizzled over ice cream or pastry, or in fresh-brewed coffee or your favorite cocktail. For an extra-special treat, try Flaming Rum-Flavored Chocolate Sauce (please see recipe below).

Flaming Rum-Flavored Chocolate Sauce

Melt the chocolate and butter in the top of a double boiler over hot, but not boiling, water. Gradually stir in the corn syrup and milk, and beat until smooth. Remove from the heat, and pour the sauce into a metal serving bowl.

Warm the rum in a small saucepan over very low heat. Remove the pan from the heat, ignite the rum, and pour it into the chocolate mixture. When the flames subside, stir the mixture until well blended. Serve the sauce warm over ice cream or cake.

Iowa grain, Iowa water, Iowa Spirits

Story & Photos by Erin Fitzgerald and Nicole Hartman

Many people dream of being able to quit the hustle and flow of their day job to start a distillery, but for two brothers in LeClaire, Iowa, this dream became a reality. Garrett and Ryan Burchett started the Mississippi River Distilling Company (MRDC) in 2010 when they noticed a unique opportunity to create spirits that hadn't been around since the prohibition era.

The MRDC is a family owned and operated company that believes in the local land and the water. Having the distillery located in a small community allows them to utilize the family farm to create a different kind of spirit that is hand crafted and born from the finest grains. This forward thinking concept has also gotten the community involved. Every ingredient that goes into their spirits is locally grown and harvested just up the road from the distillery. Even the ingredients for seasonal spirits are grown locally, within a 25-mile radius of the distillery.

MRDC is one of only a handful of distilleries nationwide that handles every step of the distilling process. This process is called "grain to glass" and it is done in a small batch process. Garrett and Ryan oversee every step of the distilling process to ensure the highest quality product is produced.

Once the product is finished, it either goes into a barrel for aging or directly into a bottle. Every spirit is bottled and hand signed but don't expect any imperfections. The Burchett brothers keep a watchful eye do everything to perfection. Every bottle that leaves the MRDC portrays the unique stamp of approval. Each bottle is individually numbered by hand to show the batch number and bottle. Customers can visit MRdistilling.com, enter the batch number and bottle number to discover the personality of each bottle. The website will give the customer a brief history of each bottle that leaves the distillery.

To get started with the distilling process Garrett and Ryan were privileged to spend time in Germany training with Europe's finest distillers. This is also where they purchased the still that is used to make all their spirits. The still consists of a 1,000 liter handmade German boiling pot and two tall copper rectification columns. Inside the two columns, there are plates that allow MRDC to distil spirits up to 95 percent alcohol. This provides the flexibility to produce anything they put their minds to, including seasonal spirits, whiskey or anything else they can think up. Garrett and Ryan have affectionately named the still “Rose” and even constructed the building around her.

Their products are just as unique as the brothers’ story. Their “River” products are a direct reflection of the Mississippi River that flows just outside their window. It reflects the river pilots and barons that brought the town of LeClaire to life with their ability to navigate boats cleanly through the Mississippi’s dangerous crosscurrents, rocks and channels. They were the keepers of life’s luxuries, including wine and spirits. Their newest product Cody Road Bourbon has proved to be in high demand after selling out across Iowa within 24 hours of release.

The Mississippi River Distilling Company has won many awards for their “River” products and for their newest product Cody Road Bourbon. River Pilot Vodka has been presented with four awards in 2011 including the Gold Medal Winner for Beverage Tasting Institute 2011 International Review and Bronze Medal Winner 2011 New York International Spirits Competition (one of only five medalists in “Vodka $25 and under” category). River Rose Gin has been awarded 3 awards which include the Silver Medal for taste 2011 MicroLiquor Spirit Award and a Bronze Medal for packaging and design. River Baron Artisan Spirit has also been awarded with three awards which include the 2011 Silver Medal Top 10 in the Nation and Silver Medal for Taste.

Future goals of the Mississippi River Distilling Company include continuing to make local, quality and great tasting spirits but also including seasonal spirits. These spirits will be uniquely flavored and will have a limited release period. The current seasonal spirit is their Iowa Coffee Company Liqueur. Only 4,000 bottles of the liqueur was produced, so make sure to get yours while it lasts!

Liqueurs—Always in Season

Consumers have taken to cocktails in a big way. Re-creating their favorite concoctions at home for friends requires them venturing into your store for the ingredients—a few of which will assuredly be liqueurs.

Liqueurs have been instrumental in the ongoing renaissance of the cocktail. With few exceptions, they're the essential components in most great cocktails and specialty drinks, making them franchise players in modern mixology. Their brilliant flavors and lush, satiny textured bodies render them capable of tempering the enthusiasm of high-octane spirits and transforming different ingredients into joy-inducing libations. Without a varied complement of liqueurs on store shelves, drink-making abilities shift into low gear.

The truth of the matter is that liqueurs are in style anytime, at any occasion, and in any season. All self-respecting retailers need a complement of liqueurs and cordials at the ready if they are to satisfy the wants of parched partygoers.

The adage that people buy on Saturday what they drink Friday night suggests a clear path how to increase retail liqueur sales. Consumers have taken to cocktails in a big way. Re-creating their favorite concoctions at home for friends requires them venturing into your store for the ingredients—a few of which will assuredly be liqueurs.

CREATE YOUR OWN FAVORITE COCKTAIL

Offer your customers—or encourage them to create—“new” cocktails using their favorite liqueurs. Start with basic drink recipes, and add the flavors of choice. With such a wide variety of flavored liqueurs on the market and with new flavors constantly being added, the possibilities are endless!

Basic Gelatin-Liqueur Shooter

Serve in chilled shot glasses (this recipe makes 4-5 shooters).

- 1 (3-ounce) box gelatin of choice
- $\frac{3}{4}$ cup boiling water
- $\frac{3}{4}$ cup liqueur of choice

Dissolve the gelatin in the boiling water. Add the liqueur of choice, stir gently until thoroughly mixed, and let cool slightly. Pour into 4 or 5 prepared shot glasses; chill.

Basic Margarita

Serve in a chilled margarita glass rimmed as desired.

- 1½ ounces white or gold tequila
- ½ ounce liqueur of choice
- Juice of ½ large lime or other complementary fruit
- Garnish: wedge or slice of lime or other complementary fruit

Pour all of the ingredients except the garnish into a shaker; fill the shaker with ice, and shake vigorously. Strain the mixed drink into the prepared serving glass; garnish with fruit.

Basic Straight-Up Martini

Serve in a chilled cocktail glass.

- 1½ ounces chilled vodka or flavored vodka
- Generous dash dry vermouth
- Generous dash sweet vermouth
- 1-2 splashes liqueur of choice
- Olive, cocktail onion, or other garnish that complements the liqueur

Pour the vodka into a mixing glass or shaker half filled with ice; add dashes of dry and sweet vermouth and the liqueur of choice (vary the amount of vermouth depending on whether it needs to be a dry or wet/sweet martini). Stir or shake gently to mix, and immediately strain into the prepared serving glass over fresh ice, if desired. Garnish as desired.

Basic Daiquiri

Serve in a chilled cocktail glass.

- 1½-2 ounces light rum
- ½-¾ ounce freshly squeezed lime or other fruit juice
- 1-1½ teaspoons sugar syrup
- ½-¾ ounce liqueur of choice
- Garnish: wedge or slice of complementary fruit

Combine the rum, juice, sugar syrup, and liqueur in a blender with fresh, clean cracked ice; blend until smooth. Pour into the prepared serving glass, and garnish with the fruit.

Though Ireland's banks may have fallen on hard times, the luck of the Irish continues when it comes to that Emerald Isle's whiskies, cordials, and ales. Indeed, the Irish whiskey category is the proverbial pot of gold; US sales have been growing in the double digits for years now and show no signs of abating. The reasons for this popularity are several, including the spirit's natural approachability and relative affordability, new expressions expanding its range and appeal, the whiskey's ancient heritage, and its, well, "Irishness"—the convivial connotations attending the entire Irish drinks category.

Among the spirits categories, Irish whiskey was the best performer, percentage-wise, in the US market in 2009 with an increase of 13% (17.5% in the control states). "The Irish whiskey segment is definitely growing ahead of other whiskies," says Yvonne Briese, marketing director at Diageo for North American Whiskey and Irish.

Irish eyes are smiling not just on whiskies, but on Irish creams and other cordials and Irish beer brands as well. As for Irish beer and ale, that segment is doing well, judging by category leader Guinness.

Aside from solid growth, there is other news from the Irish drinks category: an acquisition, repackaging, and new entrants. William Grant & Sons acquired the Tullamore Dew Irish Whiskey brand in January 2011. "Whiskey is part of William Grant's foundation; the company was built on Glenfiddich Scotch Whiskey," notes category marketing director Ken Reilly, explaining some of the reasoning behind the acquisition. "We have a bourbon in our portfolio as well. What was missing was a premium Irish whiskey.

"Irish whiskey has seen a number of new entries in the higher variants, like single malt and single pot still whiskies," observes Reilly. "This is expanding the category's shelf presence in liquor stores and engaging more consumers."

"We believe there is a lot of trial coming from other whiskey drinkers as well as non-whiskey drinkers," adds Yvonne Briese. She also believes that the single malts, a relatively rare style among Irish whiskies, has crossover appeal to Scotch whiskey drinkers.

The general feeling in the industry is upbeat, especially in the Irish whiskey category, which seems to have weathered the economy well. "We're seeing signs that things are slowly getting better," says Bill Topf, vice president, marketing, for Diageo Liqueurs and Gins. "People are moving toward premium products, and volumes are growing. Consumers are not just shopping for bargains; there is a value-equation at every price point."

ST. PATRICK'S DAY—THE PERFECT TIME FOR IRISH BEVERAGES

LEGALLY SPEAKING

TAKING A GAMBLE WITH YOUR LICENSE?

It may only be February, but one sign that spring is just around the corner is the excitement that comes with the culmination of the college basketball season known as “March Madness.” Many people throughout the country strategically make their hopeful winning picks, all the while knowing that their wager may be lost if they are not accurate in their selections. This seemingly acceptable practice of placing wagers on “March Madness” games is not without consequence however. With wagering activities such as this taking place in bars and restaurants where beer and liquor is sold, licensees should be aware of what is permissible under Iowa law.

Whether it's a restaurant conducting a sports betting pool or a bar allowing customers to play a game of Texas Hold'em, on-premises licensees are required to obtain a social gambling license. An establishment with a social gambling license may permit two types of gambling on its premises; gambling between individuals and sports betting pools.

Gambling Between Individuals

In establishments with a social gambling license, gambling may occur between patrons who are together for purposes other than gambling. Therefore, a social relationship must exist beyond that apparent in the gambling situation. Gambling on small stakes card and parlor games such as cribbage, darts and pool is allowed with a social gambling license. No casino-style games, other than poker, are permissible but poker tournaments are never authorized with a social gambling license. A licensee or its employees cannot sponsor, conduct or promote any game. A participant cannot win or lose more than a total of $50 in a 24-hour time period.

Sports Betting Pools

An establishment with a social gambling license may conduct a sports betting pool if the game is publicly displayed and the rules of the game, including the cost per participant and the amount of the prizes, are clearly displayed on or near the pool. A participant cannot wager more than $5 and the maximum winnings to all participants in the pool cannot exceed $500. All money wagered must be awarded to participants. The sports betting pool can only be used for one sporting event and must consist of a grid compliant with Iowa statute. Because of this requirement, the NCAA Basketball Tournament brackets are not legal at liquor establishments. For additional information on how to conduct a sports betting pool in grid format please refer to Iowa Code section 99B.6(7).

Poker Tournaments, Poker Runs and Raffles

A social gambling license does not allow licensees to conduct poker tournaments, poker runs or raffles. These activities can only be conducted by a licensed charitable organization. A poker run is an organized event where participants must visit checkpoints, drawing a playing card at each one. The object is to have the best poker hand at the end of the run. Raffles are defined as a lottery where each patron buys a ticket for a chance at a prize, with the winner determined by a random method. The winner does not have to be present to win.

Already Hold a Social Gambling License?

If you have a social gambling license, please check your license to ensure it has not expired. The Department of Inspections and Appeals (DIA) currently does not provide notice to licensees of their renewal date. Social gambling occurring on a premise with an expired license subjects the licensee to the same penalties as not having one at all.

Penalties

Gambling that occurs at an establishment licensed for on-premises consumption without a social gambling license is a violation of Iowa law. First offense violators may face fines up to $1,000 and suspensions lasting up to 21 days.

Don't Take a Gamble with Your Alcohol License!

DIA recommends that all on-premises licensees obtain a social gambling license. To apply for a social gambling license, complete a paper or online application, both of which are accessible on DIA's website. Along with the application, applicants must provide a letter on official letterhead from a financial institution or other entity, stating the establishment has an account in good standing. If conducting a sports betting pool, a copy of the grid and an explanation of how the pool will be conducted must also accompany the application. A social gambling license costs $150 and is valid for two years from the date issued. Applications must be submitted at least 30 days before the beginning date requested.

Visit www.dia.iowa.gov/page5.html for rules and regulations regarding social gambling. If you have further questions, please contact the Social and Charitable Gambling Unit at (515) 281-6848.
